Dear Friends, Colleagues, and Fellow Wushu Enthusiasts,

Thanks for your continuing support as we unveil this year's Wushu International Championships-2008. It is our tradition to focus towards all beginner, intermediate, and advanced levels' competitors in order to reveal their full potential of advancing perhaps to spots on the future Olympics.

With the great success of 2008 Beijing Olympics, the popularity of Wushu grow tremendously around the world, the Wushu International Championships will always be dedicated to the continuing growth of enriching the mind, body, and spirit of every practitioner.

We are certain that you'll display great sportsmanship, meet new friends, and have a great time. See you there!

Sincerely Yours,

Master Rick Sue
Chief Director, Wushu International Championships-2008

Register Early!

It is highly recommended that you pre-register before the deadline (indicated on the registration form). The advantages are as follows:

- You will be eligible for the Triple Crown Championship award
- Lower registration prices due to early preparation.
- Special 3-Event Pre-registration offer!

Regulations

The competition will be conducted adhering with the IWuF regulations for Wushu Divisions. The power of interpretation of the rules rests solely with the Judging Committee of the Tournament

Arbitration

The organization committee will establish a three person arbitration unit with the purpose of resolving disputes. A $200 CDN non-refundable (if disputer found to be arbitrarily incorrect) fee will be levied for each sitting of the arbitration unit. Decisions handed down from the unit are final. All complaints must be forwarded in writing to the Head of the Judging Committee.

Conduct

The Wushu International Championships has the right to refuse and/or discharge any application and/or individuals for reasons of conflict interpreted by the head committee.
